

INNOCORP SOLUTIONS — COMPANY FAQs

Document ID: IC-FAQ-2026-001

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Classification: Internal Employee Reference

1. General & HR Operations

Q: Where can I find the official corporate core value definitions?

A: The foundational pillars of Innovation, Integrity, and Inclusivity are detailed explicitly within Section 1 of the official InnoCorp Solutions Code of Conduct document.

Q: What is the formal timeline matrix for probationary performance appraisals?

A: Standard milestones across the initial 90-day review framework are thoroughly outlined in the Employment Lifecycle grid found inside the HR Handbook.

2. Leave & Absence Tracking

Q: Do I need a doctor's note for taking a short sick leave?

A: According to the Leave Policy Manual, standard validation tracking mandates that a formal medical certificate must be submitted to HR for any consecutive sickness absence exceeding 3 business days.

Q: What is the maximum threshold for annual paid time off (PTO) rollovers?

A: Refer to the comprehensive Paid Time Off Framework matrix in the Leave Policy Manual for precise tenure-based milestone rules, caps, and rollover thresholds.

3. IT Infrastructure & Systems Security

Q: What is the maximum allowed timeline for reporting a stolen or missing corporate device?

A: Under the Workspace Hardware & Device Handling guidelines within our IT Policies, any lost or stolen laptop or mobile hardware must be reported immediately to the IT Security Hotline within a strict 2-hour window.

Q: Can I use personal USB flash drives on corporate hardware?

A: No. The multi-column Device Restrictions Matrix in the IT Policies Manual outlines that unencrypted external media are strictly prohibited to protect enterprise network integrity.

4. Expenses, Reimbursements & Benefits

Q: What is the monetary threshold requiring a receipt for travel expenses?

A: As stated in the Reconciliation rules of the Travel Policy, a valid itemized receipt is strictly mandatory for any corporate transaction or expense exceeding $25 USD.

Q: Is there an academic threshold or cap for the corporate tuition reimbursement program?

A: Yes. The Benefits Documentation establishes a strict annual educational assistance allowance cap of $5,250 USD, requiring an academic performance benchmark of a Grade 'B' or higher for processing.